

W. H. TUCKERMAN HEADS UNION SAVINGS BANK

Directors of All National Banks in Washington Choose Their Directors for Ensuing Year.

The one important change made in the banks of Washington, which yesterday elected their directors for the coming year, was the choosing of Walter R. Tuckerman, realty man and attorney, as president of the Union Savings Bank, in place of Wade H. Cooper, who has disposed of a majority of his stock. Other officers elected by this bank are: A. G. Chapman, first vice president; Victor J. Evans, second vice president; C. L. Bowman, cashier; and W. R. Lewis, assistant cashier. The following directors were named: W. R. Tuckerman, Anson S. Taylor, Simon Oppenheimer, P. H. Tracer, H. Ralph Burton, A. E. L. Leckie, D. W. Thayer, H. R. Bonham, James Lamsbrough, Victor J. Evans, A. G. Chapman, J. A. Cahill, Tucker K. Sands, W. H. Cooper and Guy S. Scott.

Mr. Tuckerman has been a resident of Washington since 1885, and has been active in the city's growth. He was a pioneer in the business development of the Capital, having built the first business building between M street and Dupont circle. He recently created Edgewood, one of the Capital's beautiful suburban developments. He has had banking experience, having been connected for over two years with the Union Trust Company. He is a grandson of the late Lucius Tuckerman, of 1901 street. He is a graduate of Harvard University and has been president of the Washington Harvard Club. He is also an alumnus of the George Washington Law School. He is a trustee of St. John's Church, a member of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs and of various other clubs, societies and committees.

Directors were elected in compliance with the national banking act, which changes resulted from any other election in years. The results were as follows:

Ever Hear of Such Things?

South Norwalk, Conn., Jan. 12.—F. J. Ham broke a gold tooth crown worth $10 on a pearl in a raw oyster. He was indignant until a jeweler told him the pearl was worth about $50.

JUDGESHIP TRADERS TO "WORK"

Penitentiary Sentences Upheld by New York Court.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The Court of Appeals today upheld the conviction of Joseph Cassidy, former Democratic leader of Queens County, and William Willett for negotiating for the sale and purchase of a supreme court judgeship in 1911. Louis T. Walter, Jr., alleged go-between, has his conviction reversed. Walter was a witness in the other trials and was thus entitled to immunity.

NEW REAR ADMIRAL NAMED.

Former Capt. Coffman Takes Over Third Division.

Boston, Jan. 12.—Capt. Dewitt Coffman, for three years commandant at the Charleston Navy Yard, became a rear admiral today. His commission reached him at 1 o'clock from Washington and two hours later with the usual flag ceremonies and a salute of thirteen guns, he boarded the battleship Virginia at the navy yard as rear admiral in command of the third division of the Atlantic fleet.
